

Please do not let the banking lobby or anything else weaken the no call rules! I am self-employed, and work at home, and the constant calls from businesses hawking their services are extremely disruptive. I am also somewhat handicapped, and getting up to answer the phone can be challenging itself.

Unwanted telephone calls are intrusions into private homes. Do not weaken the rules!